GAIT-DUFFIELD MATCH HOLDS UP TONIGHT

Two Star Memphis Players Competing in Third Round of Woman's Championship.

TODAY'S PROGRAM.

Third round, match play: For woman's Southern championship.
First round, match play: For consolation championship trophy.
Second round, match play: For consolation championship trophy.
Semifinals, match play: For consolation championship trophy.
Open only for women entered for tournament and their partners.

BY BOB PIGUE.

With all outsiders eliminated with the exception of Miss Alice Stirling, national champion, the Southern Women's golf championship swings into the third round. The leading women golfers of Memphis who have played consistent golf this far in the tournament are today competing with each other for the honor of fighting it out for the title with Miss Stirling, who continues to be practically invincible and who is certain to be very much in evidence when the time comes for playing for the title.

The Memphis lady golfers who have survived this far are Mrs. Kenneth Duffield, Mrs. Dave Gait, Miss Minna Beasley, Mrs. Frank Guthrie, Mrs. Ben Humphrey, Mrs. W. T. Walker and Mrs. R. Paul Towner. These Memphis players have met and conquered some of the leading women golfers of the South and are today competing for the title with the survivors of the first round. The feature of today's matches will be the match between Mrs. Gait and Mrs. Kenneth Duffield. Mrs. Duffield is at present Southern champion, while Mrs. Gait is 1915 Western medalist, and their match should be one of the hardest fought of the entire tournament. With both these stars on their game, it is certain that the match played has been completed, some of the most brilliant golfing has been witnessed during this or any other tourney which has been held.

Stirling eliminated early time defeating Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, of Jackson, in the second round Wednesday, taking her opponent in one hole. The same brilliant play during the entire tournament and was never in any danger of losing.

Galleries Follow Play.

Good galleries are watching the play of the champion and Miss Stirling hasn't disappointed them, giving an exhibition of the Scotch and Irish which has been witnessed in this part of the country. That she is one of the greatest women golfers of the decade is the general consensus of opinion among those who have seen her in action.

reezy boxing riffs

Tulsa, Okla., May 26, 1915.

Boxing you will find clipping of a fight between Earl Puryear and Jack Loadman in 15 rounds. He all but knocked him out; hit him with everything but the hammer. Of course you know Loadman is a tough fellow and can take it, but had it gone two more rounds we sure would have had a K. O. credit on our record.

I claim the heavyweight champion of the world for Puryear, an Pete Herman refuses to box him. J. J. Reiser, formerly of New York, now promoter of the fight, offered a prize of $5,000, a privilege of one-third of the house, to the winner. He is a tough fellow and can take it, but had it gone two more rounds we sure would have had a K. O. credit on our record.

Now, in the general opinion of fight fans, Puryear is really the heavyweight champion of the world, and in condition he weighs out around 174 pounds. Aside from the prize which Mr. Reiser offered, I am willing to wager $2,500 and winner take all that is how confident am I that my charge can defeat Herman.

Willard expects to have sparring partners in camp by Monday.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 25.—Marvin Burke, of New Orleans, former national champion, today won a decision over Bill Beverly, of Port Worth, Tex., heavyweight, in the seventh round of a scheduled round bout in an open-air ring here last night. The bout was called in the seventh round on account of rain.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 25.—Frank Barrieau, Canadian heavyweight champion, today won a decision over the local heavyweight, Mike Kelly, in the seventh round of a scheduled round bout in an open-air ring here last night. The bout was called in the seventh round on account of rain.

PARIS, May 25.—The negro fighter whose death was reported yesterday from the effects of a blow received from the champion, Ed. Danforth, of Chicago, is now recovering from his wounds and is expected to be able to fight again in a few days.

THE painmaker was on the job at Russell park Wednesday afternoon, and after a few minutes of waiting, the crowd in the opening inning, hostilities between the Mobile Bears and the proslavery Chicks were called off.

Delays which made the baseball yard resemble a Mississippi swamp made baseball impossible, and the players would have had to equip themselves with NC to get over the big body of water that was in evidence on the infield.

Tiny Goodwood was on the mound and struck out Tommy McMillan, the first Bruin to face him. Joe Schepfer was at the bat and fouled one of the spitters, which nicked Gilbert Meyers, Chick catcher, on the thumb, putting him out of commission. Then the rain came and the noble athletes beat a retreat to the bench, where they waited 30 minutes before umpire Harry Johnson started the game.

Hardly had the umpire's announcement died away until Ed Sol came out from behind the clouds and the remainder of the day was as pretty, as could have been desired.

TRY IT AGAIN TODAY.

If it doesn't rain—and despite the fact that the rain is showing this morning it may be pouring by game time—the Bears and Chicks will try it again at 4 o'clock.

Manager Cy Barger says he will start Tiny Goodwood again. Manager Bob Coleman is going to give Prof. Ed Danforth a chance to give the Bears a chance to subdue the uprising tribe.

Day had his switch today yesterday, and was prepared to properly chastise the local boys, but rain made it necessary to call off the program until today.
